

This week the whole school have really enjoyed taking part in UK Parliament Week - exploring democracy, learning how laws are made and discovering how our voices can shape the future.

During the week, the children have experienced taking part in debates, an official opening of Parliament and the election of a Prime Minister and Deputy Prime Minister. Today our elected Prime Minister Charlie and Deputy Prime Minister Musa have done an excellent job in running school, ensuring everyone was happy and safe! Thank you to both.

On Tuesday, our Year 6 pupils delivered an informative, thought provoking and entertaining Class Assembly all about their learning across the curriculum so far this half term. Thank you to all who came to join us and well done Year 6, you were all fabulous!

Have a lovely weekend,
Miss Ackroyd
