

21st November. Newsletter 10

Dear Parent/Guardians,

21st November 2025

Firstly, a huge thank you for all the support our families have given us here at St Luke's this week. The kind words and comments shared following the news about Miss Ackroyd have been very kindly received. Today, we have also had a fantastic collection towards our Christmas Fair, which our newly formed SOS team have been organising.

Bookings have now closed for parents' consultation meetings, which are taking place on Thursday 27th November. Please contact the office if you still need to make an appointment. SEN follow-up meetings with Mrs Spencer can be arranged after the consultations for anyone who would prefer a scheduled meeting rather than a drop-in.

We had an amazing first class assembly of the year from Year 6 on Wednesday. Thank you to Mrs Milner and all the children for their hard work.

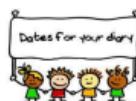

Next week is Parliament Week in school. The children will be learning about how Parliament works and how it affects them.

The Book Fair will also be in school next week—please see below for more information.

I am proud to be part of St Luke's Primary. It's weeks like this that remind me how wonderful our staff, children, and community truly are!

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Spencer
