Year 3 spent the end of this week at Bramhope Scout Camp. They enjoyed a range of outdoor and adventurous activities including climbing, archery and go-karting! We are incredibly proud of our children for their behaviour and attitude shown on this trip. You can see many more pictures from this residential on our school Facebook site.

Yesterday, Reception had an amazing trip to Hesketh Farm Park. They went on a tractor ride, collected eggs, held chicks, stroked guinea pigs and fed calves and goats! It was a brilliant day and they all came home tired and happy having learnt all about how a farm works. What a great experience.

Have a lovely weekend,
Miss Ackroyd
